

EMILIE-MARIE MERCIER,
Partnership contractmanager, EDF

After 7 years at ALMA Consulting Group (European leader in business performance), where she advised company in innovation financement including research tax incentives and various research and innovation public funds, she cofounded the start-up Just Innovation to advise European companies on the management of innovation. In 2012, she joined EDF (the largest European energy company) to take in charge partnerhips and technology transfer activities within the IP&Partnerships departement.

Emilie-Marie hold a master degree in Bioinformatics. She's been regularly involved in mediation and jury for the French Chamber of Commerce and French incubators.

She's involved in the LESI since 2014 when she joined the IUGT committee and is now representative of the Young Members community within LES France.