

Michael Kuan is the founder and chairman of Kuan Capital, an investment and asset management firm based in Shanghai, China. Prior to establishing Kuan Capital in 2013, he co-founded CyberCity Investment, SIG Capital and was a partner of GGV Capital.

Born in China and educated in the US, Michael's investment career started in 1986 as a venture capitalist in Silicone Valley. He returned to China in 1992 and became one of the pioneering investors in TMT, Internet, Education and Biotech industry.

With his unique investment style of early, lead and active, Michael has invested and played key roles in some of successful ventures including Quantech Electronics, China.com, Sina.com, Liming Networks, China Cable Networks, Grandhope Biotech and Hippo Animation. Kuan Capital is also an investor in Anchor Pacific Capital, RedBird Capital and Singularity University in United States.

Michael was the co-author of InvestAmerica (1989), an investment guide for foreign investors seeking US investment opportunities. In 2006, He was the commencement speaker at Pepperdine University in the US.