

Gabriele Mohsler

Vice President Patent Development at IPR & Licensing, Ericsson

Gabriele Mohsler is Head of Patent Development within Ericsson, responsible for all patent creation world-wide and in charge of a number of patent units worldwide. Throughout the years she has held several management positions and was responsible for European litigation within Ericsson for a number of years.

Gabriele Mohsler studied electrical engineering at the Rheinisch Westfälische Technische Hochschule in Aachen (RWTH) and started her career as patent attorney trainee within Alcatel. After passing the European Qualifying Exam, she started working at Ericsson in Germany in 1997. Here she took the German attorney exam and started building up the patent department in Germany, which is now one of the key IPR departments within Ericsson.

Gabriele Mohsler is also a European Patent Institute (EPI) board member and is an elected EPI counsel for Germany. Further she is an elected member of the board at The German Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property (GRUR) as well as in the board of trustees for Women in IP.

Note on Ericsson:

With over 37,000 granted patents, Ericsson has emerged as the company holding the strongest radio communication patent portfolio in the industry covering 2G, 3G and 4G cellular standards.
