

Biography of Mr. WU Yuhe

Mr. WU Yuhe

Patent Attorney, Trademark Attorney, Attorney-at-Law

Mr. Wu received his B.S. in Pharmaceutical Chemistry from Peking University Health Science Centre in 1989. He joined CPA in 1993, qualified as a patent attorney the following year, and was admitted to practice law in 1995. Mr. Wu received his LLM from Peking University Law School in 1999. He received further training on the U.S. and European patent prosecution and litigation with law firms in the United States and the United Kingdom.

Mr. Wu has, during the past 20 years, handled many patent application and litigation cases, particularly relating to patent invalidation, patent infringement litigation, patent administrative investigation and litigation, patent rights ownership dispute, etc. Mr. Wu has broad experience in practicing before various Chinese courts of various levels (including the Supreme People's Court) and IP administrative authorities, and several of his represented cases respectively relating to enforcement of patent rights and judicial reviews of patent validity are selected and recommended by the Supreme Court or some other institutes as high-profile, landmark, or exemplary IP cases in China. He has also represented many clients in trademark infringement and counterfeiting cases, as well as lawsuits relating to unfair competition and IP licensing and assignment contract dispute. Mr. Wu was on the first list of "National High Calibres in Patent Agency Industry in China" selected by All China Patent Attorneys Association (ACPAA), under the category of "patent-related legal affairs". He is also the arbitrator for the Asian Domain Name Dispute Resolution Center.

Mr. Wu has published about 30 academic articles in famed IP journals in China and abroad. He has also participated in a number of important researches, including those undertaken by the State Intellectual Property Office of the PRC (SIPO) on the Chinese Patent Law, the Implementing Regulations of the Patent Law and the Examination Guidelines, and those by Beijing Higher People's Court on determination of patent infringement. He is the co-author for book Patent Infringement and Litigation, which is a part of the patent attorneys' training series published by All China Patent Attorneys Association (ACPAA). Mr. Wu is a member of the Chinese Group of AIPPI, LES China and All China Patent Agents Association. Working languages: Chinese and English.