

Mr. Chengji Zhang,

Patent manager of Evonik Degussa (China) Co., Ltd.

Mr. Zhang has been a patent manager in Evonik China since late 2010, and is responsible for drafting patent applications, drafting and reviewing IP related agreements, as well as inventor remuneration matters including policy construction and implementation.

Before joining Evonik China, he worked as a patent attorney in the Shanghai branch office of the law firm King & Wood (now King & Wood Mallesons) from 2008-2010. Before 2008, Mr. Zhang worked as a research chemist in two Chinese pharmaceutical companies for six years.

Mr. Zhang graduated from Fudan University and holds a master's degree in medicinal chemistry.